

Kent Hansson becomes acting CEO of DDM Holding AG

Press release issued by DDM Holding AG

5 February 2018

DDM Holding AG's (Nasdaq First North: DDM) founder and Chairman of the Board of Directors Kent Hansson will assume the position of acting CEO of the DDM Group with immediate effect. Outgoing CEO Andreas Tuczka is stepping down from his position for family reasons, but will remain as a member of the Company's investment committee and an advisor to the Company. DDM will initiate the process to recruit a new CEO without delay.

"The Board of Directors has great respect for Andreas Tuczka's decision and wishes to extend its gratitude for his significant contributions to DDM. We are also pleased to still have access to his substantial expertise and broad network," says Kent Hansson, Chairman of the Board and incoming acting CEO.
