Tierärztliche Klinik vom Bökelberg in Germany joins AniCura

AniCura, a European leader in high quality specialised veterinary care for companion animals, acquires Tierärztliche Klinik vom Bökelberg in Möchengladbach. The acquisition broadens AniCura's offering of high quality veterinary services in Germany and provides Tierärztliche Klinik vom Bökelberg with a strong professional partner and a wide network of veterinary colleagues and expertise.

Tierärztliche Klinik vom Bökelberg was founded in the 1950's and is currently run by veterinarians Dr. Claus Krampe, Dr. Arnd Stelljes and Sven Döhmen. The clinic, with its team of 45 veterinary professionals, provide around-the-clock veterinary services to its 35 000 patients each year. Approximately ¾ of patients are referred from other veterinary clinics and practices.

The clinic provides a wide range of specialised veterinary services in surgery, internal medicine, cardiology, oncology and dermatology. Since 2009 the clinic resides in purpose built facilities of 1 200 square meters, comprising operation theatres, nursing wards, an in-house laboratory as well as technology for dialysis and a blood bank. Furthermore, the clinic is well equipped for diagnostic imaging, with heart ultrasound apparatus, CT (Computed Tomography), MRI (Magnetic Resonance Imaging), endoscopy and digital X-ray.

– We believe that the future of veterinary medicine lies in cooperation and teamwork. By joining AniCura we gain great opportunities for knowledge exchange and sharing of ideas and experiences, as well as a solid partner for administrative and management support, say Practice Managers Dr. Claus Krampe, Dr. Arnd Stelljes and Sven Döhmen in a joint statement.

– We are very pleased to welcome Tierärztliche Klinik vom Bökelberg to the AniCura family. By working closely together in partnership and trust we continue to shape the future of high quality specialised veterinary care in Europe, says Peter Dahlberg, Group CEO AniCura.

About AniCura

AniCura is a family of well-known animal hospitals and clinics specialised in veterinary care for companion animals. Born out of the idea that sharing resources creates opportunities for better veterinary care, the company was established in 2011 as the first merger of companion animal hospitals in the Nordic region. Today, AniCura is a role model within specialised veterinary care and a valued partner for pet owners and referring veterinarians across Europe.

The company offers a wide range of high quality medical services covering preventive and basic health care as well as advanced diagnostics, internal medicine, intensive care, surgery and orthopaedics. AniCura also provides rehabilitation, physiotherapy and dietary advice and offers selected pet food and care products.

AniCura provides modern, high-quality veterinary care for pets at 130 European locations and creates peace of mind for pet owners through excellent access and patient safety. Every year, AniCura's 2 500 passionate veterinary professionals attend to more than one million companion animal patients. AniCura is a trusted training and referral body.
