Tierärztliche Klinik Dr. Peter Neuhofer in Germany joins AniCura

AniCura, one of Europe's leading providers of high-quality veterinary care for companion animals, acquires Tierärztliche Klinik Dr. Peter Neuhofer in Neu-Ulm. By joining AniCura, the clinic gains a professional partner and solid platform for continued professional and veterinary development.

Veterinarian Peter Neuhofer founded Tierärztliche Klinik Dr. Peter Neuhofer, now AniCura Tierärztliche Klinik Neu-Ulm, in 1992. The clinic employs a team of 24 veterinary professionals offering specialised veterinary services to approximately 10 000 patients each year. Special areas of expertise are surgery (soft tissue, orthopaedics and neurosurgery), internal medicine, with a particular emphasis on cardiology, as well as dermatology, diagnostic imaging, dentistry and ophthalmology.

In 2002 Tierärztliche Klinik Dr. Peter Neuhofer moved to new facilities comprising 600 square meters and containing surgery rooms, nursing wards and various modalities for diagnostic imaging, such as CT (Computed Tomography), radiology, including dental radiology, ultrasound heart and abdomen as well as endoscopy.

– AniCura has a value base in which we feel very much at home. We both share a common ambition to deliver high quality care and excellent service, and AniCura gives priority to areas that are close to our hearts, such as care hygiene and teamwork, says Practice Manager Dr. Peter Neuhofer.

– It is our pleasure to welcome Tierärztliche Klinik Dr Peter Neuhofer to our growing family. Together in partnership we continue our quest to further develop high quality veterinary care at the same time as we focus on the customer experience and availability, says Peter Dahlberg, CEO AniCura.

About AniCura

AniCura is a family of well-known animal hospitals and clinics specialised in veterinary care for companion animals. Born out of the idea that sharing resources creates opportunities for better veterinary care, the company was established in 2011 as the first merger of companion animal hospitals in the Nordic region. Today, AniCura is a role model within specialised veterinary care and a valued partner for pet owners and referring veterinarians across Europe.

The company offers a wide range of high quality medical services covering preventive and basic health care as well as advanced diagnostics, internal medicine, intensive care, surgery and orthopaedics. AniCura also provides rehabilitation, physiotherapy and dietary advice and offers selected pet food and care products.

AniCura provides modern, high-quality veterinary care for pets at 130 European locations and creates peace of mind for pet owners through excellent access and patient safety. Every year, AniCura's 2 500 passionate veterinary professionals attend to more than one million companion animal patients. AniCura is a trusted training and referral body.
