

Press Release
Stockholm, 18 October 2016

Vangede Dyreklinik joins AniCura

AniCura, one of Europe's leading providers of high-quality veterinary care for companion animals, acquires Vangede Dyreklinik. The partnership provides even greater opportunities for cooperation and development within veterinary medicine for the benefit of pets and pet owners in Northern Copenhagen.

Vangede Dyreklinik is a renowned animal hospital with a history stretching back more than 33 years. Today, the clinic's team comprises eight employees, providing general veterinary medicine for pets as well as surgical and medical treatment. Clinic staff undergoes training on an ongoing basis to ensure treatments at the highest professional level.

The clinic is located centrally in Søborg-Vangede-Gentofte. The building is modern and its facilities include an operating theatre, radiology, equipment for dental treatment and laboratory work. The clinic also has its own animal behaviour specialist.

Veterinarian Peter Rosenlund qualified in Copenhagen in 1980 and after three years practicing veterinary medicine in an animal hospital, he founded Vangede Dyreklinik in 1983. Over the years, in his role as owner and Practice Manager, Peter Rosenlund has developed the clinic into a modern general practice with over 6,500 patient visits per year.

- AniCura focuses on creating and developing the quality of veterinary medicine throughout Europe, and as a partner we now enjoy the very best options for treating our customers' pets according to the very latest and best methods. Every day we fulfill our customers' wishes by ensuring their pets are diagnosed and treated to the very highest standards. Consequently, we must prioritize training and advanced technical equipment and our collaboration with AniCura now provides us with even greater opportunities, says veterinarian and Practice Manager Peter Rosenlund.

- AniCura extends the warmest of welcomes to Vangede Dyreklinik in our family of European animal hospitals and clinics. We will continue to offer Danish pet owners increased access to quality pet care and treatment, says Peter Thomsen, Business Area Manager Denmark.

For further information, please contact

Peter Rosenlund, Practice Manager Vangede Dyreklinik, +45 2445 2857 6827

Peter Thomsen, Business Area Manager Denmark, +45 7172 4157

About AniCura

AniCura is a family of well-known animal hospitals and clinics specialised in veterinary care for companion animals. Born out of the idea that sharing resources creates opportunities for better veterinary care, the company was established in 2011 as the first merger of companion animal hospitals in the Nordic region. Today, AniCura is a role model within specialised veterinary care and a valued partner for pet owners and referring veterinarians across Europe.

The company offers a wide range of high quality medical services covering preventive and basic health care as well as advanced diagnostics, internal medicine, intensive care, surgery and orthopaedics. AniCura also provides rehabilitation, physiotherapy and dietary advice and offers selected pet food and care products.

AniCura provides modern, high-quality veterinary care for pets at 130 European locations and creates peace of mind for pet owners through excellent access and patient safety. Every year, AniCura's 2 500 passionate veterinary professionals attend to more than one million companion animal patients. AniCura is a trusted training and referral body.

For information on how AniCura is working to shape the future of veterinary care, please visit our website www.anicuragroup.com