

AIDEN JUDE RELEASES - ARRIVAL

NEW YORK (August 27, 2014) - His latest release an instrumental called Arrival, his name is Aiden Jude, a young DJ, Producer and songwriter based in New York. Ashlyn Fulton from Daily Beats describes "gracious melody that tranquilize", is one of Aiden Jude's many recent works as he gradually introduces more and more of his musical expressions to the expanding Electronic Dance Music world.

Aiden Jude first broke through with his single Tonight earlier in the year and followed with another release called Everybody in the house, a Melbourne Bounce style track. Consistently, releasing more and more of his music and performing in Festivals and events around the East and West coasts through the summer this young talent is making his mark in the music industry further and further with every release and every show. At very young age he has already performed in Jones Beach Theatre in front of 20,000 fans, the IZOD center in New Jersey and many other music venues weekly.

Arrival is another milestone in Aiden Jude's journey to delivering us uplifting feel good melodies and driving beats. He may be one of youngest DJ Producers around but his music and his performances are ageless and powerful to all music lovers. This release is available for free download paving the way for his much anticipated Fall release of his upcoming project called Words featuring vocals by Lily Anne Merat. You may also find Aiden Jude's music on Beatport, a dance music portal as well as iTunes. Subscribe to his Podcast to follow his latest mixes that are frequently featured in radio shows around the world.
