Bygghuset opens new store in Ljusdal

During the spring of 2018, Bygghuset will open a store in Ljusdal, which will employ 4-6 people.

"If everyone in Sweden has a Bygghuset store nearby, it will be possible for more people to realize the building projects of their dreams at a lower cost", says Region Manager Jens Kristofersson.

The new store will be part of the concept Bygghuset Mini. This has been possible, since Bygghuset has been able to adjust the costs in order to open stores in smaller towns, which we have done in Mariannelund and Kalix during 2017. Bygghuset Mini are stores with a slightly reduced variety of products. Online products can easily be ordered on the web and collected at the local Bygghuset Mini store, or delivered to your home address.

Bygghuset will continue establishing stores at a high pace in as many Swedish towns as possible, in order to offer convenient and cheap shopping at Bygghuset to home improvers as well as professionals.
