Deutsche Bank expands presence in Finland

As of 1 December, Deutsche Bank is expanding its operations in Helsinki, Finland, by establishing an equities business known as Deutsche Bank Equities.

Deutsche Bank Helsinki is part of Deutsche Bank's presence in the Nordic Region. Since opening in 2000 it has assisted its Finnish clients in reaching their strategic and financial objectives.

Deutsche Bank has implemented a coordinated approach in the Nordic region in order to provide clients with a seamless offering. As one of few international banks with offices in Helsinki, Copenhagen, Oslo and Stockholm, and by leveraging its global network, the Bank can offer clients holistic service across its Corporate Banking & Securities, Deutsche Asset & Wealth Management and Global Transaction Banking divisions.

"We are pleased to further expand our operations in Helsinki in order to achieve increased local client connectivity. We look forward to continuing to build on our already strong capabilities," said Thomas Lindahl, Deutsche Bank Chief Country Officer Finland.

Jan Olsson, Deutsche Bank CEO Nordic Region, added: "Deutsche Bank has established a leading banking franchise in the Nordic region and has this year been involved in some of the largest transactions in the Nordics. Finland is an important part of our Nordic success story. Strengthening the office in Helsinki illustrates our commitment to Finnish business and the community at large. We are looking forward to an active partnership with our clients in Finland and hope to expand our relationships even further with a stronger presence on the ground."

The new Deutsche Bank Helsinki office is located at Unioninkatu 20-22.

This release contains forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements are statements that are not historical facts; they include statements about our beliefs and expectations and the assumptions underlying them. These statements are based on plans, estimates and projections as they are currently available to the management of Deutsche Bank. Forward-looking statements therefore speak only as of the date they are made, and we undertake no obligation to update publicly any of them in light of new information or future events.

By their very nature, forward-looking statements involve risks and uncertainties. A number of important factors could therefore cause actual results to differ materially from those contained in any forward-looking statement. Such factors include the conditions in the financial markets in Germany, in Europe, in the United States and elsewhere from which we derive a substantial portion of our revenues and in which we hold a substantial portion of our assets, the development of asset prices and market volatility, potential defaults of borrowers or trading counterparties, the implementation of our strategic initiatives, the reliability of our risk management policies, procedures and methods, and other risks referenced in our filings with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission. Such factors are described in detail in our SEC Form 20-F of 20 March 2014 under the heading "Risk Factors". Copies of this document are readily available upon request or can be downloaded from www.db.com/ir.
