Delta Minerals 'name change

In order to harmonize the company structure, the parent company Delta Minerals AB has changed name to Delta Environmental Projects AB

In order to clarify the company's operations in the Philippines, the company has already renamed the Philippine company. Subsequently, the Swedish parent company has also changed its name.

The company, however, will continue to market itself as Delta Minerals in Sweden and internationally.

Practically it means, only the company name will be changed, otherwise unchanged.
