

Multiconsult ASA appoints Executive Vice President of International Business

Torbjørn Blom-Hagen (43) has been appointed Executive Vice President of International Business in Multiconsult ASA, effective from October 2015. He will lead the International segment and join Multiconsult's executive management team.

Blom-Hagen is currently Senior Vice President in Aker Solutions, leading a global business unit in the oil and gas industry.

"I feel confident that we have found the right person to realise and further develop Multiconsult's international ambitions. Torbjørn has an impressive international track record and a very interesting background for the position. He offered very convincing answers regarding the position during the recruitment process" says Christian Nørgaard Madsen, CEO of Multiconsult ASA.

Solid background and right profile

Multiconsult's new executive director has extensive experience from international growth processes through his current role in Aker Solutions, leading operations in Norway, UK, Canada and the USA. He has also previously led numerous business development and M&A processes in Aker Solutions, as well as having been an advisor in Capgemini's European business development unit.

Blom-Hagen holds an MSc from NTNU in Norway and an MBA from INSEAD in France. He lives in Lommedalen, on the outskirts of Oslo.

«It has been important for us to select a candidate with a personality that suits Multiconsult and is a good fit for the executive management team. I feel confident that Torbjørn is the right person based on these criterias too» says Nørgaard Madsen.
