

New construction manager at Serneke in Varberg/Falkenberg

Karl Wetterlund is the new construction manager at Serneke and will lead the construction group's expansion efforts in the Varberg/Falkenberg area.

Tell us why you chose a position at Serneke.

"It's an exciting company in a powerful phase of expansion. In addition, Serneke is a innovative construction and contracting company that dares to go its own way and discover opportunities. I have heard a lot of positive things about the Company, and the services offered are well-suited to the challenge I am looking for to continue to develop both professionally and personally."

What opportunities do you see within the Company?

"We aim to reach customers and clients and gain new market share in Varberg and Falkenberg. I am entering into the role with complete humility but with all my energy and commitment, which I hope to spread to both colleagues and customers."

What have you done before coming to Serneke?

"Most recently, I was at Sweco Management in Halmstad as assignment and project manager. Prior to that, I was employed at NCC Construction Sverige AB, where I also started my career after completing studies at Chalmers in 2007. First, I was employed as a trainee/supervisor and then became a manager in 2008."

Toni Hultberg, Regional Manager of Serneke Construction West, has this to say about Karl's roll in the Company:

"I am very pleased that Karl chose Serneke! He is going to work in an expansive part of Halland, and we have to be at the top of our game. With Karl's energy and background, I am convinced that we will increase market share in the region."
