Construction Simulator 2

Free lite version now also available for iPhone® and iPad®!

Mönchengladbach/Germany, November 13, 2017 – astragon Entertainment GmbH and weltenbauer. Software Entwicklung GmbH are happy to announce that the free lite version of Construction Simulator® 2 is now also available on the Apple® App Store®.

After the successful release of Construction Simulator® 2 Lite for Android the popular simulation game has now found its way onto the iPhone® and iPad® as well. The free version of Construction Simulator® 2 offers access to the first two officially licensed vehicles of the main game as well as the complete starting tutorial. Next to this, players will get the opportunity to explore the first of in total four districts of the fictional US state Westside Plains and to complete several extra missions. Construction fans wanting to play the game in full will of course be able to upgrade the lite version to the complete Construction Simulator® 2 experience - including access to the full vehicle park consisting of 40 originally licensed vehicles and machines by Caterpillar, Liebherr, Palfinger, Bell Equipment, STILL, ATLAS and Kenworth as well as more than 60 diverse and challenging construction missions - at any time.
