

Episurf Medical will exhibit at the ICRS Heritage Summit, held in Gothenburg, Sweden, on June 29 – July 1

Episurf Medical AB (NASDAQ: EPIS B) will exhibit at the ICRS Heritage Summit in Gothenburg, Sweden (Gothia Towers Hotel) on June 29 – July 1. This international meeting celebrates the 20th anniversary of the International Cartilage Repair Society (ICRS), a global society promoting scientific research and knowledge exchange amongst physicians, scientists and patients focused around the field of cartilage repair. This summit will review the past, the present and the future of cartilage science. Professor Leif Ryd, Senior Medical Advisor of Episurf Medical, has been invited to talk about Episealer as an alternative to standard cartilage repair treatments.
