

New Chinese patent approval for Episurf Medical

The Chinese patent office SIPO has announced that Episurf Medical (NASDAQ: EPIS B) has obtained another granted patent in China. The patent, entitled "Design method of a rig", is within the area of individualised surgical instruments with a focus on the drill guide for the Episealer® Femoral Twin implant.

"The individualised drill guides form an important part of Episurf's surgical instrument kit, to ensure optimal positioning of the Episealer® implants. This patent gives a stronger protection for the Episealer® Twin technology", comments Katarina Flodström, CRO & Head of IP, Episurf Medical.
