THQ Nordic to publish Bugbear Entertainment's "Wreckfest" on PC and console formats

THQ Nordic announces the cooperation with Helsinki based developer Bugbear Entertainment regarding the release of the demolition derby themed racing game Wreckfest.

The game has been in development for the past few years and both parties, having added additional resources, expect to have the PC version of the game ready for release by the end of 2017 with console versions to follow in 2018. THQ Nordic will become the publisher for both the digital and physical channels on all formats.

The game is currently featured in Steam's Early Access catalogue. It will receive a number of updates in the coming period.

Bugbear is well known for the critically acclaimed FlatOut series.
