Probi appoints new CFO

Probi has appointed Henrik Lundkvist as CFO of Probi. He will start his assignment at the latest by the 7th of January, 2019.

Henrik joins Probi from GCE Group, a global manufacturer of gas control equipment, where he served as CFO since 2015. Prior to that he has held senior finance positions at E.ON Sverige AB and began his career as an auditor with EY.

“We are very happy to welcome Henrik to Probi as our new CFO. Together with our new CEO, Tom Rönnlund, and the whole management team, Probi is well-positioned for its next phase of growth and innovation. I also would like to thank Jörn Andreas who has done an excellent job during the period he served as CFO.”, says Chairman of the Board Jean-Yves Parisot.

“Probi is a leading player in the probiotic industry. The company has an innovative product portfolio and a strong financial position to compete successfully in a growing global market. I look forward to joining the team and to contributing to Probi’s path of profitable growth.”, says Henrik Lundkvist.
