

INVITATION

BREAKING THE THOUGHT BARRIER

SAAB

GET CLOSER TO THE WAY WE THINK

Defence and security company Saab takes pleasure in inviting you to meet us at the Paris Air Show 2013, for a closer look at our breakthrough thinking.

We are presenting some of the results of over 75 years' development and production of world-leading air defence solutions and commercial aviation – including fighter jets, radar, anti-aircraft systems, unmanned aerial systems, air traffic management, aeronautics components and support and services.

On display, amongst others, are the Gripen and its simulator, Erieye AEW&C, Saab 340 MSA, Remote Tower, Skeldar, Giraffe AMB and the RBS 70 NG Air Defence System.

For more information about what we're presenting at the 50th Paris Air Show, visit www.saabgroup.com/parisairshow2013.

You'll find us in our pavilion and static display position D-146 and in our chalet no. A-278, where, as usual, we'll be holding some thought-provoking briefings...
