Setra Group has hired Sara Westberg as the new manager of Setra's processing unit in Skutskär. Operations including planing, pressure treatment and painting. The unit handles 97,000 m3 of processed wood every year. Sara Westberg joins Setra from a position where she was responsible for dispatch and packaging at BillerudKorsnäs in Gävle. She will take up her new position at Setra on 1 June.

"I am really looking forward to starting at Setra. I hope to be able to contribute with a fresh look combined with my experience of similar operations. In my role as manager I will prioritise safety and work to achieve involved leadership where employeeship is in focus," says Sara Westberg.

Setra's CEO, Hannele Arvonen, is that pleased that the appointment of a new manager for the facility in Skutskär is now finalised.

"We are delighted to welcome Sara Westberg to Setra and Skutskär. Sara has completely the right background to lead the continued development of this operation. Her management experience and her major interest in and commitment to sustainability and leadership will be extremely useful."
