

27 November 2015

Press release

Claes Seldeby resigns from his position as CEO of FM Mattsson Mora Group

Claes Seldeby has informed the Board of Directors of FM Mattsson Mora Group that he resigns from his position as CEO. Claes has six months notice. The company will now begin searching for his replacement as CEO of FM Mattsson Mora Group.

“As CEO of FM Mattsson Mora Group, Claes Seldeby has made a strong contribution to the company’s positive growth and profitability trend. Thanks to Claes efforts FM Mattsson Mora Group today has a strong platform to further develop the Group. I wish him good luck in his new position.

We will now search for a replacement to take over and continue to develop the business and our strong brands,” says Johnny Alvarsson, Chairman of FM Mattsson Mora Group.

For further information, please contact:

Johnny Alvarsson, Chairman of the Board of FM Mattsson Mora Group AB, mobile:
+46(0)70 589 17 95

FM Mattsson Mora Group AB (publ) sells, manufactures and develops faucets under the strong and well-established brands FM Mattsson, Mora Armatur and Damixa. The Nordics is the Group’s main market. The Group has sales of over 1 billion yearly, and employs over 550 people.