

New collaboration - Paf offers slots from the provider Play'n Go

Paf has signed multi-year agreement with Swedish based slots provider Play'n Go, starting from July the 5th 2017.

The Paf customers will get access to the top 10-15 Play'n Go games during 2017 and their complete portfolio by 2018.

- We are really excited about this. Play'n Go's strength in the nordic market and the quality of their games will further strengthen our position. I am sure the unique promotion tools and game titles such as Hugo, Gemix and Viking Runecraft will appeal to our customers, says Herbert Paradis, Head of Casino and Poker at Paf.

In addition to the unique games, that are produced in Paf's game studio, Paf.com from now offers slots from the providers NetEnt, Quickfire and Play'n Go.

Johan Törnqvist, Group CEO at Play'n Go, says:

- We are delighted to provide such a reputable operator with our extensive range of premium games, and I'm sure their existing customers will enjoy what we have to offer, as well as enticing new players to Paf's gaming arm.

- At Play'n Go we pride ourselves on high-end design, playability and innovation across all our games, and I look forward to a successful partnership with Paf in the coming months and years as we continue to roll out market-leading slots.
