Akelius Residential AB (publ)

High demand for Akelius preferential shares

In response to high demand, the offer is expanded to include subscription of 3.4 million preferential shares. As a result, Akelius can receive up to SEK 1,020 before costs for the issue.

The notice period for institutional investors is shortened until 5 pm on 22 May 2014, i.e. the same expiry time as the notice period for the general public.

The subscription price as well as other terms and conditions for the offer remain unaltered.

Managing Director Pål Ahlsén: The high demand from investors with substantial property knowledge is particularly gratifying. Demand is high from both large institutions and individuals. The proceeds will be used for continued investments in appealing apartments in expanding major cities.
