Akelius Residential Property AB (publ)

Almost ten billion to Akelius, which accepts three

Akelius issues 9,375,000 preferential shares for a total of three billion kronor. 16,000 investors applied for shares of a value of 9.5 billion kronor. This means that the issue was oversubscribed by a remarkable 6.5 billion kronor.

The Board of Directors decided to carry out the issue in accordance with the authorization granted by the general meeting. Akelius's customers had right of first refusal for 400 shares each.

The preferential shares are listed on Nasdaq OMX First North and the first day of trading for the newly issued shares is expected to be 24 September 2014.

Managing Director Pål Ahlsén: Obviously I was surprised, particularly by the high demand amongst international institutions with substantial competence in real property.
