

Akelius Residential Property AB (publ)

Akelius acquires 2,075 apartments in Malmö, Sweden

Akelius has agreed on acquiring properties from Hugo Åberg in central Malmö, Sweden. The portfolio consists of 2,075 apartments. The most significant property of the portfolio is the blue, mosaic covered skyscraper, a well-known landmark in Malmö.

Akelius will after the acquisition own 4,300 apartments in Malmö, 24,700 apartments in Sweden and 47,400 apartments globally.

CEO, Pål Ahlsén: This is the best portfolio that has been on offer on the Swedish residential property market for a long time. We are glad that we managed to buy it. Malmö is Sweden's 'Berlin', with lots of soul and lots of potential. We look forward to upgrading the properties to First Class.
