

PLAY'N GO SIGNS MULTI-YEAR AGREEMENT WITH PAF

Supplier's award-winning suite of games now available to Åland-based operator's mobile and desktop users

October 17th, 2016 – Swedish slot supplier Play'n GO has signed a landmark agreement with Paf that will make the company's full suite of mobile and desktop content available to the operator's players for the first time.

The multi-year deal will see award-winning premium titles like Gemix, Grim Muerto and Eye of the Kraken offered to all Paf customers after a simple integration.

Johan Törnqvist, Play'n GO's Chief Executive Officer, said: "We're delighted to have signed an agreement with Paf, one of the most well-respected companies in the industry. Paf is known in the business for being in the forefront when it comes to responsible gaming with all of their profit going to good causes."

"As a Scandinavian company at heart, we feel strongly that our suite of premium titles with industry leading performance will be music to the ears of Paf's customers."

"We're looking forward to working closely with Paf in the years to come and are confident that this agreement is just the beginning of a long and fruitful relationship."

Kim Johansson, Paf's Director of Games, added: "Play'n GO is well known across the industry for producing some of the best titles around and we're thrilled to be give our players the chance to share in the fun and excitement."

Play'n GO's latest blockbuster title Grim Muerto was recently nominated for eGR's prestigious Game of the Year award. The company's titles are now prominent on the sites of 100 operators in more than 40 languages.
