

From Drab to Fab; Standard Furniture Provides for Family in Need on Designing Spaces™ on Lifetime TV

Standard Furniture provides stylish furnishings to Florida family in need on “Spaces of Hope - Rebuilding Together” special makeover series

(Pompano Beach, FL – April 16, 2013) Standard Furniture teamed up with Designing Spaces™, the popular home improvement show on Lifetime Television, for the third and final episode of the “Designing Spaces of Hope - Rebuilding Together” series. The segment featuring Standard Furniture airs on Thursday, April 18th at 7:30 am (ET/PT).

The Designing Spaces™ crew was on location to film the renovation of a grandmother’s home where she and her four grandkids had been living in unsafe conditions including no running water or electricity. During the episode, Tim Ussery from Standard Furniture meets up with our Designing Spaces™ host to assess the home’s furniture needs room by room, and donate pieces to help transform the spaces of Joy’s house with stylish yet functional furnishings.

Family-owned and American based, Standard Furniture designs, manufactures and distributes affordable, stylish, innovative, quality bedroom, dining room, living room and youth furniture at various price points. The company was built on the principles of providing jobs in the community and providing an affordable product that mainstream American would be proud to own.

“We’re thrilled to have Standard Furniture on board as a valued partner in this special “Rebuilding Together” series. The furniture they generously provided gave the entire family places to be together and live more comfortably”, says Lysa Liemer, Designing Spaces™ on Lifetime Executive VP of Programming and Chief Operating Officer.
