

Cucina wins catering contract at Hampton College, Peterborough

New contract worth £2million over 5 years

Artisan school caterer Cucina Restaurants has won the catering contract for Hampton College in Peterborough, an all-through Academy with 1348 pupils aged 4-18 on roll.

Commencing on 1 January 2016, the contract is worth an estimated £2 million over a five year period.

Commenting on the the new contract win, Cucina's Managing Director Stuart Lenton said:

"Hampton College is a very exciting opportunity for us, being an all through school. Throughout the tender it became very clear that their school food provision was of the highest priority. This is why Hampton College is the ideal partnership for Cucina and we very much look forward to delivering our new restaurant service from January."
