

Should non-euro area countries join the single supervisory mechanism?

Bruegel organizes a conference call to discuss non-euro area countries joining the SSM

Tomorrow, 13th March, at 8:30am CET, Bruegel fellows Zsolt Darvas and Guntram Wolff will conduct a telephone press conference call to present their latest paper, called "Should non-euro area countries join the single supervisory mechanism?"

The paper was presented at a hearing on the Danish Parliament on the 26th of February and discusses the pros and cons of joining the SSM. It will be publicly available after the call, but interested journalists can request a copy under embargo to leire.ariz@bruegel.org.

Brussels correspondents are invited to join in from Bruegel's offices in Rue de la Charité, 33.

Please let us know if you plan to participate by sending an email to leire.ariz@bruegel.org
