

HANZA expands its cooperation with Saab

HANZA Holding AB (publ), listed on First North Premier, has received orders for communications equipment from the Defense and Security company Saab with delivery in 2017.

HANZA has signed another production agreement with Saab, which develops world-leading products for military defense and civil security. The agreement includes the production of computer products to the international market and has a total order value of approximately 16 MSEK. Delivery is scheduled for summer 2017 and production will take place in HANZA's manufacturing cluster in Årjäng.

"We have a clear focus on Security of Supply and see that HANZA meets both our quality and commitment levels," said Niclas Lövgren, Head of Vehicle Systems, Saab.

"We are proud that Saab gives us the confidence to deepen cooperation through another order for complete products for tough environments," says Erik Stenfors, CEO of HANZA. "Saab sets high standards and the agreement is proof of the strength of our business model."
