

PA Consulting Group Executive Chairman Jon Moynihan Announces Plan to Retire

New York and London, June 10, 2013 -- PA Consulting Group (PA), the leading employee-owned management consulting company, announced that Jon Moynihan has informed the Board of Directors of his plan to retire as Executive Chairman. Mr. Moynihan will continue to serve until the end of the year, during which time a successor will be named and the Chairmanship transition completed.

"I started out with PA in 1992, and I am proud to have been part of the Company's evolution in that time into the premier technology-oriented management consulting firm, performing so strongly for our client," said Moynihan. "PA's dedicated employees and management team have developed PA into a unique position, and I leave confident that the company is well placed for even greater successes into the future. I look forward to working with the Board of Directors and my successor to ensure a seamless transition."

"On behalf of the Board and everyone at PA Consulting Group, I would like to thank Jon for his great leadership over the last two decades, and for the dedication and commitment that he has given to developing myself personally and others in PA during that time," said Alan Middleton, CEO.
