

UROS continues the strategic cooperation with ZTE

- Goodspeed Roaming app embedded in the selected smartphone models
- Offers low-cost data roaming in 140+ countries
- Provides a simple solution for roaming without bill shock

27th February, 2018 – Barcelona. UROS – Uni-fi Roaming Solutions, the leading global Roaming Solution provider today announces that UROS will continue to work with ZTE, aiming to embed the Goodspeed Roaming app in selected ZTE smartphone models.

UROS CEO Jerry Raatikainen said, "We are delighted to continue working with one of the major smartphone vendors like ZTE. Goodspeed Roaming will be expanded to ZTE's premium product portfolio."

Jerry Raatikainen (CEO, UROS), Jacky Zhang (Senior Vice President, CEO of APAC, Russia and CIS, ZTE Mobile Devices), Jyrki Hallikainen (Chairman of the Board, Founder, UROS), and Herbert Chan (CMO, UROS) at Mobile World Congress 2018.

Goodspeed Roaming provides affordable mobile data connection for international travelers who prefer to travel without extra devices but appreciate smooth connectivity with transparent cost. The Goodspeed Roaming App together with the Goodspeed SIM guarantees low-cost connectivity in over 140 countries.

The selected smartphone models with Goodspeed Roaming app come equipped with all the necessary to start enjoying the Goodspeed Roaming service. The Goodspeed Roaming App is embedded in the smartphones and the Goodspeed SIM is ready to be inserted in the dual SIM slot. After activating Goodspeed Roaming the data service will be available the next time one needs it on-the-go. Once abroad the app will suggest connecting with Goodspeed Roaming leaving customer's regular phone number available for voice calls and text messages.
