Anna Jennehov appointed CFO at Rejlers

Anna Jennehov has been appointed CFO at Rejlers AB and will join the group's management team. Anna is currently CFO at Knowit AB, where she has worked since 2013. Anna has extensive experience of change management with sustainable results within the consultancy sector. She will take up her new position at Rejlers on 8 February 2019.

Before Anna's current role at Knowit, she worked at HiQ International for 15 years in various positions, including group controller, CFO and acting information and marketing manager. Anna has a degree in Business Administration from Stockholm University.

"I'm thrilled that Anna has chosen Rejlers and am convinced that she will be a valuable leader and colleague on our journey of change to achieve higher profitability and growth. Anna will play a vital role in creating an even stronger business culture," said Viktor Svensson, President and CEO of Rejlers.

"Based on my previous experience and with a strong commitment to the consulting industry, I look forward to working with Rejlers' new management team to further improve the group's results and financial position combined with a robust corporate culture," said Anna Jennehov.

Acting CFO Mikael Lingefelt is returning to the role of Group Controller.
