

Rejlers acquires the business activity of design and consulting services in the industry and energy sectors from Ramboll Finland

(REJL B)

Rejlers subsidiary Rejlers Oy in Finland has acquired the business activity of design and consulting services in automation and electricity from Ramboll Finland Oy. The turnover of the acquired business is about M€ 5.5 in 2011 and it has about 70 employees. The acquisition also includes the business activity Ramboll Finland acquired from Jyvästek Oy. The acquisition will be realized on 1 February, 2012.

The acquisition will strengthen Rejlers ability to offer technical consulting services to the Industry and Energy customer groups and expands Rejlers services in Finland significantly. After the acquisition Rejlers has around 430 employees in Finland.

Through recruiting new staff and implementing strategic acquisitions Rejlers goal is to employ at least 2015 employees and have a turnover of at least SEK 2015 million by 2015.
