

Cummins recognizes top U.S. suppliers

Cummins Inc. (NYSE:CMI) today recognized the top suppliers to its U.S. operations at its 2014 U.S. Supplier Conference held in Indianapolis, Ind. In all, 17 suppliers to Cummins' businesses and functions achieved recognition for delivering exemplary service and support in a range of categories, including U.S. Supplier of the Year.

"These suppliers have demonstrated and exceeded the qualities that we expect of all of our suppliers – high quality, on-time delivery, innovation, service and commitment to Cummins' values," said Lisa Yoder, Vice President – Supply Chain and Manufacturing. "They understand what it means to be a true partner to Cummins, helping us be successful so that we, in turn, help our customers succeed. It's called winning at the hand offs."

The winning suppliers were nominated by the respective business units and functional areas from more than 5,000 suppliers to Cummins in the United States. The awards recognize suppliers that are helping Cummins transform its supply chain into one that is market driven.

The winners are:

- Freeman Enclosure Systems, LLC
- Robert Bosch, LLC
- Kubota Corporation
- NGK Automotive Ceramics USA, Inc.
- Apollo Security International Inc.
- VCST Industrial Products
- Celestica
- Jasper Rubber Products, Inc.
