M² by Mary Margrill Helps Sponsor An Evening for Cambodian Children's Fund Honoring Sumner Redstone

LOS ANGELES, CA (April, 19 2012): An Evening For Cambodian Children's Fund Honoring Sumner Redstone was wall to wall with Creators, Chairmen, CEO's who are all great philanthropists in their own right. Held at the contemporary Paley Center for Media on April 17, 2012 in Beverly Hills, California, Sumner Redstone, Viacom and CBS, Corp. Chairman and Controller, was honored for his pledge to grow CCF programs to serve a wider range of children and to help sustain its operations for the long term. Redstone has unselfishly donated over 1.5 million dollars to the fund since 2007. Mary Margrill, creator of M² by Mary Margrill fine jewelry, also a donor, and was in attendance to again extend the inspirational reach of her 'Make a Difference' jewelry.

Mary was first invited to attend an event for CCF in 2011 by actress Heather Graham and dress designer Michelle Jonas. Mary, was so blown away when she saw the picture of a Cambodian child on the event invitation that she immediately donated 400 of her iconic sterling silver SkippyDiggy® necklaces with meaningful messages such as "Love", "Believe", and Happiness. Mary believes in the power of transform and that what you believe in becomes reality. This year Mary contributed her time, her heart, and 200 customs made circle pennants engraved with the word "Believe." To commemorate the work of Scott Nelson, CCF founder and CCF founder and former film executive's tireless work to transform the lives of children in a small province called Phnom Penh.

Mary's pieces remind us that we can trust in the positive energy of our lives and ultimately gain strength from it. Mary's jewelry embraces a vision of universal harmony and understanding and at the same time entices us with the sparkle of diamonds and the luster of gold.
