Margot Wallström leaves the Board of ICA Gruppen

Margot Wallström is leaving her position on the Board of ICA Gruppen with immediate effect. Her position on the Board will remain vacant until ICA Gruppen's general meeting on 22 April, when a new Board will be appointed.

"I would like to thank Margot for her time on the Board, where she has contributed new perspectives and great commitment. We would like to wish her all the best in her new role as foreign minister," says Claes-Göran Sylvén, Chairman of the Board of ICA Gruppen.

The Nomination Committee will propose candidates for the Board of ICA Gruppen ahead of the Annual General Meeting on 22 April. Margot Wallström's seat will be left vacant until the meeting elects a new Board.

Following the departure of Margot Wallström, the Board of ICA Gruppen comprises nine members elected by the general meeting and two employee representatives.
