Chief Financial Officer to leave Recipharm

Recipharm AB announces today that Henrik Stenqvist has resigned from his position with the company to pursue other opportunities.

Thomas Elderred, CEO of Recipharm, said: "During his time with Recipharm, Henrik has, amongst other things, further developed the Group's financing as well as finance function, in terms of both its organization and competence. We are highly grateful for his contribution and wish him all the best for the future".

Henrik Stenqvist will serve as CFO until later in the spring. A search process has commenced to appoint a new CFO.
