

Getinge announces its continued commitment to the World Federation for Hospital Sterilization Sciences Congress.

October 2, 2017

Bonn, Germany

Getinge, a leading global provider of innovative medical technology, announces its commitment as a gold sponsor of the World Federation for Hospital Sterilization Sciences (WFHSS) congress. This event will take place in Bonn, Germany from October 4-7, 2017.

“The WFHSS congress is the perfect event for us to showcase our infection control product portfolio and complete workflow offering. We will present our new technologies within the area reinforcing the importance of efficient workflow with special focus on our innovative IWS (Integrated Workflow Solutions) product range. Getinge has also sponsored a clinical symposium focusing on new technologies and lean strategies for reprocessing of surgical instruments.” shared Markus Stirner-Schilling, Vice President Marketing & Academy Europe Middle East & Africa.

WFHSS congress brings together medical technology organizations and healthcare professionals with an interest in the latest developments in sterilization sciences and the role of medical device reprocessing in health care.
