

Frankfurt Rhine-Main: one region - boundless opportunities!

The Frankfurt Rhine-Main region has gained a reputation as being one of the most diverse regions in Germany.

Apart from the Alps and the northern coastline, visitors will find everything that is associated with Germany: great food and wine, half-timbered houses, beautiful countryside with many opportunities for outdoor activities, friendly people, enchanting rivers and historic towns.

Few other regions in Germany offer such a wide range of opportunities within such short distances.

All of the many highlights can be reached in an hour or less! Whether Rüdesheim on the Rhine or Aschaffenburg on the Main, day excursions are a piece of cake!

The Frankfurt Rhine-Main region has much more to offer than the daily hustle and bustle of the Frankfurt Stock Exchange.

A varied cultural scene, impressive sightseeing attractions and a delicious range of culinary offerings have helped to turn Frankfurt Rhine-Main into a bustling and vibrant region for visitors looking for quality and variety on a grand scale.

A popular destination for both business travellers and holiday-makers.

Hardly surprising with its superb location conveniently located in the very heart of Europe easily accessible via Frankfurt International Airport or the region's well-developed rail and road networks.

Fast Facts Frankfurt Rhine-Main

- Area of 13 000 km²: as big as Connecticut
- Population of 5,2 million
- Metropolis: Frankfurt am Main (approx. 700 000 inhabitants)
- Vineyards, castles and small charming villages
- Our services: online picture database, online press release, news:
www.frankfurt-rhein-main.de

Transportation

- Frankfurt Rhine-Main is located in the heart of Europe and easily accessible via Frankfurt International Airport or the well-developed rail and road networks
- Frankfurt Airport: Europe's premier traffic and transportation hub; connected directly to an expansive rail and bus network
- The Rhein-Main-Verkehrsverbund (RMV) passenger transport association provides public transport throughout Frankfurt Rhine-Main thereby making it easy and inexpensive to reach any destination in the region
- The outstanding RMV public transport system provides bus routes, and many underground and suburban railways
- The ICE high speed train operates from the long-distance railway stations at Frankfurt International Airport, Wiesbaden, Aschaffenburg or Darmstadt

Contact:

Ina Pflingst

Phone: +49 (0)6201 60208-25

E-Mail: ina.pflingst@tourcomm-germany.com

Further Information:

www.frankfurt-rhein-main.de

www.fraport.com

www.rmv.de