

Press release April 10, 2017

The NGM Stock Exchange observes a moment of silence on April 10, 2017

On Monday April 10 2017, the NGM Stock Exchange will observe a moment of silence from 12:00 p.m. until 12:01 p.m. (CEST), in remembrance of those who lost their lives during the terrorist attack that took place in Stockholm on April 7, 2017. Trading will not be halted during this time, but NGM asks the trading participants to use their best judgment and sensitivity in regards to trading during the moment of silence.

For more information, please contact:

Roger Peleback, CEO of Nordic Growth Market NGM AB at roger.peleback@ngm.se or +46 8 566 390 25

About NGM

Nordic Growth Market (NGM) is an authorized exchange operating in Sweden, Denmark, Norway and Finland. The exchange was founded in 1984 and is now a wholly-owned subsidiary of Boerse Stuttgart, the leading retail exchange in Germany. We offer a complete marketplace for exchange traded investment products and provide a complete arena for companies seeking to quote or list their shares. For more information about NGM, visit <http://www.ngm.se/?lang=en> . Follow us on LinkedIn and Twitter: <https://twitter.com/ngmexchange> .