Proposals by the nominating committee (items 2 and 13-16)

In accordance with the guidelines adopted by the AGM in 2014 a nominating committee has been appointed. The nominating committee, which consists of Kimmo Viertola, chairman, Kari Itälahti and Matti Rusanen, proposes:

- That Bertil Brinck is elected chairman of the AGM.
- That the board of directors shall comprise of four members without deputies.
- Unchanged fees to the directors totalling SEK 450,000, of which SEK 150,000 to the chairman and SEK 100,000 to each of the other non-executive directors. No separate fees are paid for committee work. Further, it is proposed that following a separate agreement with the company, a director may invoice its fee as a board member, together with statutory social security contributions and value added tax according to law, through a company owned by the director in the country where the director resides, subject to the condition that such payment is cost neutral to the company.
- That the auditor's fees are payable on account.
- Re-election of the directors Teuvo Jurvansuu, Katja Keitaanniemi, Jarmo J. Vesanto and Mauri Visuri.
- Re-election of Mauri Visuri as chairman of the board of directors.
- Election of the registered auditing company PWC AB as the auditor of the Company until the end of the AGM in 2016 and with the auditor Anna Rosendal as the auditor in charge until further notice.

Proposals by the board of directors (items 10 and 17-19)

Item 10 - Allocation of earnings

The board of directors and the managing director propose that the accumulated losses are carried forward. The board of directors proposes that no dividend will be paid for 2014.

Item 17 – Nominating committee

The board of directors of the Company proposes that the annual general meeting (“AGM”) adopt the following guidelines for the nominating process. The shareholder, based on statistics from Euroclear Sweden AB, which holds the largest number of shares and voting rights as of August 31, 2015, will after consultation with the three next biggest shareholders appoint a nominating committee of three persons. The composition of the nominating committee will be published at the latest in the Interim Report for the third quarter of 2015. The nominating committee’s task is to present proposals to the AGM regarding the number of the directors and deputies, the composition of the board and the fees payable to the directors and special fees payable for committee assignments, if any. Further, the nominating committee will present proposals for the chairman of the board and the chairman to preside over the AGM and on the auditors and their fees. The chairman of the nominating committee is appointed by the nominating committee. The mandate period of the nominating committee lasts until a new nominating committee has been appointed. If a member of the nominating committee leaves the nominating committee before its task has been completed or if a material change occurs in the ownership structure of the Company after the appointment of the nominating committee, the nominating committee’s composition will be changed in accordance with the above principles. Changes in the composition of the nominating committee will be published on the Company’s website. The nominating committee’s proposals will be publicly announced in connection with the publication of the notice of the AGM. In connection with its assignment the nominating committee will fulfil the duties incumbent on it according to a company’s nominating process as stated in the Swedish Code of Corporate Governance. At the request of the committee the Company will provide personnel resources, such as a secretarial function for the nominating committee to facilitate the work of the nominating committee. Where needed the Company will also bear reasonable costs for external consultants, which are deemed necessary by the nominating committee to fulfil its assignment.

Item 18 - Guidelines for compensation to management

The board of directors proposes principles for remuneration and other employment terms consistent with the guidelines adopted at the AGM in 2014.

The proposal mainly involves that the Company will offer its executives market-based remuneration, which will enable the Group to recruit and retain qualified employees. With senior management and senior executives are meant the managing director and other members of the management. The remuneration may consist of the following components (i) fixed base salary, (ii) variable compensation, (iii) pension benefits and (iv) other customary benefits. The variable remuneration will be paid based on performance goals achieved by the Company as a whole and performance targets for the individual employee. The variable salary will be maximized to 25 per cent of the fixed salary. Pension benefits should be premium-based and may reach 20 per cent of base salary. The board of directors may diverge from the above principles if special reasons apply in an individual case.

Item 19 – Authorization for the board to issue new shares, issue of warrants and/or convertibles

The board of directors proposes that the AGM decides to authorize the board during the period until the next AGM to issue new shares, issue of warrants and/or convertibles, on one or more occasions and with or without preferential rights for the shareholders. Board resolutions under this authorization may result in a maximum dilution of ten (10) per cent of the total number of shares outstanding at the time of the first board resolution in accordance with this authorization. The decision may provide for that the newly issued shares, warrants or convertible bonds could be paid in assets contributed in kind, by set-off or otherwise characterized by conditions pursuant to Chapter 13, Section 5, first subparagraph 6, Chapter 14, Section 5, first subparagraph 6 or Chapter 15, Section 5, first subparagraph 4 of the Swedish Companies Act. The board is authorized to decide additional terms and conditions for the new issue or issue.
