ABOUT THE PHOTOGRAPHER:

Award winning Dutch photographer Hans Kemp has been travelling around Asia for over twenty-six years. During this time he lived in Tokyo, Beijing, Hong Kong, Saigon and Bangkok and worked as bartender, teacher and tour guide before settling on a career in photography. Commercial clients include companies as Caltex, Tiger Beer, Coberco Dairy Products, Jardine Schindler to mention a few.

Kemp's passion lies in his editorial work and book projects and he has been published to great acclaim in a wide variety of international newspapers and magazines such as GEO, Sud Deutsche Zeitung, Time, Panorama, Asahigraph, Reader's Digest, and many others.

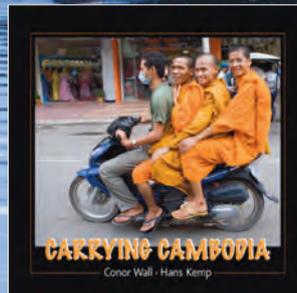

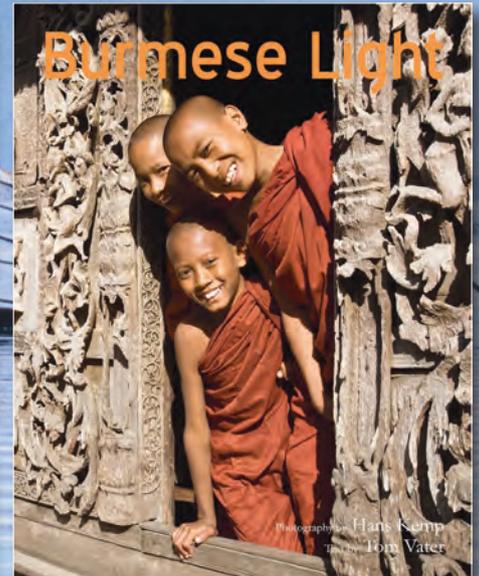

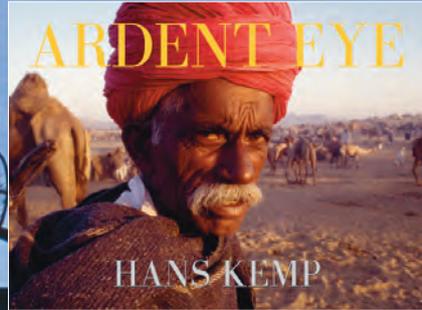

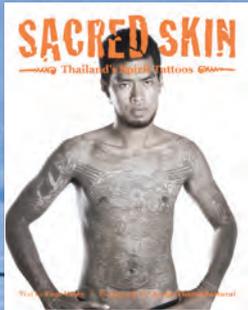

He has published several books of his work, of which perhaps the best known to date is the best-selling Bikes of Burden, which brilliantly documents the motorbike culture of Vietnam. Other titles can be seen below. All of his books are published by Visionary World, represented by Kodansha Europe.
