

25,000 Members - Viral Angels Reaches Another Milestone

The management of Viral Angels Credit Union is proud to announce that it now has more than 25,000 members. Viral Angels is an international investment network with members in more than 70 countries. Viral Angels is an active investor in fast growing companies going to public markets.

Only one year ago, Viral Angels had 1800 members. The growth of members translates to roughly a 1400% increase.

Recent investment highlights include Best Of All Worlds, a social media platform from A Small World founder Erik Wachtmeister, Fantrac, an exclusive online fan club that will give fans all over the world unique access to their idols and Athabasca an Oil exploration business which is now close to listing on the London Stock Exchange.

"Viral Angels is not only a members club, it's actually changing the market for small businesses looking for funding. In a rapidly changing world, Viral Angels provides a platform for the creation of growth and new job opportunities. This recent growth shows we're on the right path and that the public agrees", says Viral Angels CEO Anthony Norman.

In addition to its investment activities, Viral Angels regularly organizes seminars, lectures and activities in various forms for its members. Each month there are a number of events around European cities.

Membership on the Viral Angels is free – join now at www.viralangels.com if you're not already a member to find out what it's all about.
