

DDM announces intention to apply for listing on Nasdaq Stockholm's main market

Press release issued by DDM Holding AG

27 April 2017

DDM Holding AG (First North: DDM), announces its intention to apply for a listing of the company's shares on Nasdaq Stockholm's main market. The target is to move from Nasdaq First North to Nasdaq Stockholm's main list in the first half of 2018. The shares of DDM have been traded on Nasdaq First North since 5 August 2014.

"We believe that a move to the main market will benefit DDM and its shareholders by enabling future increased institutional and international ownership. We also believe the seal of quality offered by Nasdaq Stockholm will be positive both for our business as well as for our relationships with sellers of distressed assets in Central and Eastern Europe and other key stakeholders, thereby supporting our continued strong growth", says Gustav Hultgren, CEO of DDM.

This is information which DDM Holding AG is obliged to make public pursuant to the EU Market Abuse Regulation. The information was submitted for publication, through the agency of the contact person set out below, at 19:00 CET on 27 April 2017.
