

Win Le Mans 2016 hospitality experience with Elstock

GSF Car Parts has teamed up with Elstock to offer one lucky winner two tickets to a luxury Le Mans 2016 experience, with Elstock purchases before the end of February giving a chance to win.

Tickets include ferry crossings to and from France. The winner is guaranteed to be up-close to the racing action too, staying on the complex in a 5-metre luxury bell tent complete with king-size bed and carpeted interior, with those all-important tickets to the Le Mans 2016 Grand Stand provided.

Each purchase made through GSF Car Parts from the Elstock range during January and February comes with a voucher qualifying the customer for submission into the prize draw. Vouchers must be registered online at www.elstock-gsf.co.uk in order to activate them, with the winners announced on Tuesday 1st March.

Runner-up prizes include an Audi driving experience at Silverstone for two people, and tickets to Moto GP

Amanda O'Reilly, Head of Marketing, GSF Car Parts, said: "We know the level of enthusiasm that exists for motor racing amongst our customer base, so we're anticipating an overwhelming response to this competition, which we're delighted to offer thanks to the strength of our relationship with Elstock.

"The prize-draw gives everyone a chance, and of course, the more that customers buy, the greater their chances are."

GSF Car Parts is the sole distributor of Elstock in the UK. The Denmark-based business, is part of BORG Automotive, one of Europe's largest remanufacturing groups. Factories in Denmark, Poland, Belgium and Birmingham produce rotating electrics, steering, braking, A/C compressor and EGR valve ranges.

Garages are advised to contact their local branch of GSF Car Parts for details.
