Johan Lundin new Head of Investor Relations & Communication for Dometic

Dometic Group has appointed Johan Lundin as Head of Investor Relations & Communication for the company. He joins from the role of Investor Relations Manager at Assa Abloy and will be responsible for the Group's IR function as well as external and internal communications.

"I am very happy that Johan Lundin strengthens our team with his experience from leading IR positions in companies with international operations. He will continue to build and focus our IR function, and add capacity in our external and internal communications. The recruitment is a natural step following the IPO of Dometic in the end of 2015", says Per-Arne Blomquist, CFO of Dometic.

Johan holds a Master's degree in Business Administration and Management from Lund University and has a background from IR positions at Assa Abloy and Axis Communications, and as a consultant within IR and corporate communications. He joins Dometic no later than July 2017. Erika Ståhl who currently is responsible for the IR function remains in her role as Head of Group Business Control.
