Investor's ownership in EQT

In conjunction with today's first day of trading of EQT AB on Nasdaq Stockholm, Investor AB has, as communicated on September 2, 2019, pro-rata together with partners, sold a limited share of its holding in EQT AB in order to secure a free float of the share. Following the sale, Investor's ownership amounts to 176,739,596 shares in EQT AB, equivalent to 18.5 percent of the company. Proceeds to Investor will amount to SEK 1.6bn.

In October, Investor may come to sell an additional maximum of 2,451,580 shares at the listing price dependent on the advisory banks' utilization of the over-allotment option. Investor, being the largest owner, has in accordance with market practice, entered into a securities lending agreement with the advisory banks encompassing 10,396,188 shares for one month in order to facilitate the handling of the over-allotment option.

The sale and the lending of Investor's shares in EQT AB will be reported to the Swedish FSA's PDMR transactions register.

Investor's engagement in EQT is long-term.
