

Press release
Stockholm
March 10, 2025

Henrik Müller-Hansen joins the Patricia Industries Board

Henrik Müller-Hansen, CEO and founder of the Norwegian company Gelato has been appointed to the Board of Directors of Patricia Industries.

"I am grateful that Henrik Müller-Hansen has accepted to join the Patricia Industries Board. We look forward to working with Henrik and benefiting from his strategic capabilities, his industrial experience within telecom and his learnings from successfully building up an enterprise that today has employees from over 50 countries and offices around the world", says Marcus Wallenberg, Chair of Patricia Industries.

Prior to funding Gelato, Henrik Müller-Hansen spent several years at Tele2, including as CEO for their Norwegian entity 2003-2006.

As of March 10, 2025, the Patricia Board consists of: Gunnar Brock, Christian Cederholm, Henrik Müller-Hansen, Denise Persson, Åsa Riisberg, Inge Thulin, Jacob Wallenberg and Marcus Wallenberg.

For further information:

Jacob Lund
Chief Communications & Sustainability Officer
+46 725 60 21 57
jacob.lund@investorab.com

Magnus Dalhammar
Head of Investor Relations
+46 735 24 21 30
magnus.dalhammar@investorab.com

Our press releases can be accessed at www.investorab.com.