Heimstaden Makes Changes in its Management Team

Heimstaden AB is making changes in its Management Team. Arve Regland, who has held a combined CFO position in Heimstaden AB and Fredensborg AS, will take the more strategic role as Group CFO of Fredensborg AS, as Thomas Alexander Hansen (47) is appointed CFO of Heimstaden AB.

Thomas has for the past nine years held senior positions within the areas of financial reporting and control, financial systems, international tax, and commercial operations in Scatec ASA. Prior to joining Scatec, he was Director of Financial Reporting & Tax in Circle K Europe AS and auditor and advisor at KPMG. Thomas will be a part of the Heimstaden Management team and report to CEO Helge Krogsbøl. Arve will, as CFO in Fredensborg, work closely with Heimstaden's Management Team, and in particular the CEO and CFO.

"I am looking forward to contributing to Heimstaden's ambitious journey as one of Europe's leading real estate companies," says Thomas Hansen.

To strengthen the synergies between Investments and Financing, the DCM & Treasury team will report to Chief Investment Officer Christian Fladeland.

"Thomas' experience and competence and the new organisational structure sets Heimstaden in a good position to deliver on our targets," says Helge Krogsbøl, CEO at Heimstaden AB.

"Arve will as Fredensborg's CFO continue to play an important role in developing Fredensborg's business units and strategy, including working closely with Heimstaden," says Ivar Tollefsen, Chairman at Heimstaden AB.
