

Inside information: Nurminen Logistics' Board of Directors and CEO have agreed on a planned CEO transition

Nurminen Logistisc Plc, Stock Exchange Release, Inside Information, 16 July 2026 at 8:00

The Board of Directors of Nurminen Logistics Plc and the company's CEO Olli Pohjanvirta have agreed on the planned CEO transition. Pohjanvirta will continue as CEO until 31.12.2026 and will then act as an advisor to the new CEO during the agreed transition period to ensure a controlled management transition. Pohjanvirta will continue in his current board positions as a member of the Boards of Directors of Nurminen Logistics Plc and its subsidiary, North Rail Oy.

The transition is based on the shared vision of the Board of Directors and Pohjanvirta on the company's long-term succession planning and supporting Nurminen Logistics' next growth phase. The company has a strong position to continue delivering growth in international rail logistics services. Nurminen Logistics has advanced its expansion into Sweden and Western Europe in line with its strategy, leveraging the scalable block train concept developed by the company. The company's high service quality, strong customer relationships and skilled personnel provide a solid foundation for future growth and competitiveness.

"During Pohjanvirta's term as CEO, the company's financial position has been raised to a strong level and profitability has been among the best in its industry. I would like to thank Olli for his contribution to the implementation of major business transformation processes that have made the company Finland's most international logistics company with good future growth prospects," says Irmeli Rytkönen, Chairman of the Board of Directors.

"Nurminen Logistics now has a clear growth focus in Western Europe, a broad customer base, the necessary resources and a skilled team to take the company forward. I feel that this is the right time to hand over operational responsibility to my successor and continue to support the company as a member of the Board of Directors," Pohjanvirta says.

Nurminen Logistics has simultaneously published a separate stock exchange release on the appointment of the company's new CEO.
