Nurminen Logistics Plc, Stock Exchange Release, Inside Information, 16 July 2026 at 8:00 EEST

The Board of Directors of Nurminen Logistics Plc has appointed Mikko Kuusilehto, M.Sc. (Eng.), as the new CEO of Nurminen Logistics as of 1 January 2027. He succeeds Olli Pohjanvirta, who will continue as CEO until 31.12.2026.

"Mikko Kuusilehto has strong experience in international business and people management. The Board of Directors is convinced that he has the right prerequisites to lead Nurminen Logistics in its next phase of development and strengthen the company's position in the international market," says Irmeli Rytkönen, Chairman of the Board of Directors of Nurminen Logistics.

"Nurminen Logistics has built a strong position in international rail logistics and a strong operational foundation and a competitive business model on which future development can be built. I am excited about the opportunity to lead the company into its next phase of growth together with its employees, customers and stakeholders. I believe that my extensive experience in international business, operational leadership and building growth provides a strong foundation for the determined execution of the company's strategy," says Mikko Kuusilehto, incoming CEO of Nurminen Logistics.

Mikko Kuusilehto's CV is attached to this release.

Nurminen Logistics has simultaneously published a separate stock exchange release on the planned CEO transition.
