Stockholm, 14 July 2016

Transcom WorldWide AB (publ) today announced that the company has signed a renewed agreement with Tele2, one of Europe's leading telecom operators offering mobile services, fixed broadband and telephony, data network services, content services and global M2M/IoT solutions. Tele2 and Comviq have been awarded for best customer service in Sweden multiple times.

Transcom has provided customer care services for Tele2's customers since 1995. Tele2 is Transcom's largest client, accounting for roughly 15 percent of revenue. Approximately 2,000 employees are currently dedicated to the Tele2 account, providing multichannel customer service and support to customers in Croatia, Estonia, Germany, Latvia, Lithuania, the Netherlands and Sweden.

"Over the past few years, we have strengthened our partnership with Tele2, with a focus on consistent and efficient delivery of world-class customer service. Together, we have managed to exceed ambitious targets set for customer satisfaction. I am very pleased to announce this new agreement with our largest client, which creates a stable platform from which to continue developing the award-winning customer service", commented Johan Eriksson, President & CEO of Transcom.
